2. WE Division, in coordination with the Commercial Staff, is in the process of developing an Administrative Plan to cover the construction of the building and the consummation of the purchase. However, the Division was notified yesterday by the field that it must have a letter of credit for [REDACTED] payable to the cover corporation immediately in order to execute its construction contract.

25X1A1a

3. It is therefore requested that [REDACTED] be made available to WE Division immediately. The Administrative Plan for the construction phase will be formulated within the next few weeks and then will be amended later to cover the operation of the building after completion of construction.
